

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR

Vol. 44—No. 49

BARTON, VERMONT, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1915

Single Copies 5 Cents.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Advertisements will be inserted under this head at two cents per word for first insertion and one cent per word thereafter. No advertisement will be inserted for less than twenty-five cents.

FOR SALE
FOR SALE—Dry stove wood. Milo J. Owen, Barton. 34tf

FOR SALE—Pigs. E. L. Alexander, Glover. 45tf

FOR SALE—Nearly new sleigh, harness and robe. E. C. Brennan, Orleans. 47tf

FOR SALE—Harness, sleigh and two robes. G. A. Katen, Barton. 47tf

FOR SALE—Two registered Jersey bulls ready for service. G. L. Beckford, Saxfield. 45tf

FOR SALE—Farms, houses and timber lands. Inquire of Barton Real Estate company, Barton, Vt. 25tf

FOR SALE—One pair two-year-old steers, evenly mated, some cows and yearlings. Mrs. I. A. Curtis, Saxfield. 1wp

FOR SALE—Dry stovewood at $5.50 and $5.00 per cord. Dry block wood at $5.50 and $5.00. —Delivered. Terms cash. C. C. Brooks, Barton. 48tf

FOR SALE—Twenty two-year-old Guernsey heifers; also one nice work mare, weighing 1500 which would exchange for good driver. H. B. Chamberlain, Irasburg. 47tf

FOR SALE—Village residences, wagons, sleds, sleighs, harnesses, stoves, furniture, chains, hand farming tools. Call upon F. W. Baldwin, Barton. 45tf

FOR SALE—House—location, Irasburg street, Orleans. Terms reasonable. Apply to owner, Miss Eva C. Ostrout, Westfield. 46-51p

BARGAIN for quick sale: two-and-one-half-story frame dwelling, wood house and barn on lot 300x300 north-west corner North avenue and Highland street Orleans. J. M. Wyman, Orleans, R.F.D. No. 1. 42-51p

FOR SALE—My residence in Orleans, one of the best built houses in Orleans county, large and roomy, all modern improvements. Also house opposite my residence, excellent cottage house with barn and good garden plot. C. E. Jenkins, Orleans. 45tf

FOR SALE—Nine-room house, barn, henhouse and carriage house (1-2 acres of highly cultivated land) located at Greensboro Bend, Vt., 1-2 mile from R. R. station, 1-3 mile from church and school. Good running water at house and barn. Apply to F. A. Amsden, Greensboro Bend, Vt. 30tf

TO RENT
Tenement to rent. R. P. Webster, Barton. 48tf

TO RENT—Tenement. G. A. Katen, Barton. 47tf

TO RENT—Tenement with all modern conveniences. Douglas Lester, Barton. 49tf

MISCELLANEOUS

Furniture and automobile upholstery and repairing. E. C. Brennan, Orleans. 47tf

Ralph J. Provencal, piano and reed organ tuner, Barton. Estimates on all kinds of work. Will also accept pupils on any brass instruments. 48-1p

Bring on your sleighs, wagons and automobiles for painting at the Sargent Paint Shop. Everything is ready and can do you a first class job. A. Sargent, Orleans. 45tf

NOTICE—Babbitt's Best Soap now contains as much borax as any borax soap on market. Bring 50 trade marks to Pierce's Pharmacy, Barton, or Austin's Pharmacy, Orleans, for a useful kitchen set, or other valuable premiums. 44-49

FOUND

FOUND—Small yearling Jersey heifer. Owner may have same by proving property and paying charges. C. H. Hannant, Irasburg. 47-49

WANTED

WANTED—Live poultry. Erick, Barton. 18tf

WANTED—Fresh eggs and poultry. E. S. Kelley, Orleans. 17tf

WILL PAY CASH for clean rags for wiping machinery at this office.

WANTED—Employment on farm or any kind of work. Henry Alkon, Phone 147-33, Irasburg.

WANTED—Live poultry, inquire of N. W. Strawn at Geo. Litchfield's, Orleans, Brownington village road, Bell phone.

HELP WANTED—Position, Pastime, Business, Mail. Apply The E. M. Beland's Help & Job Junction, Newport, N. H. 46-49p

Notice.

The selectmen of the town of Barton will meet at the town clerk's office Thursday, Dec. 16, to settle claims for damages done by dogs. E. R. Cook, Chairman of the Board. 48 50

Governor Gates Asks for Co-operation.

Continued distress in Belgium necessitates continuation of relief from this country in the way of food and clothing. The state society for relief in Belgium is making a general canvass for money and new clothing in behalf of these needy people and has asked the churches of the state to co-operate, selecting Sunday, Dec. 12th, as the day on which contributions may be received by the churches for the above purpose. I therefore recommend that special effort be made on the part of the people of Vermont with the end in view that Vermont may abundantly do her part in relieving this suffering humanity. Funds may be sent to H. T. Rutter, treasurer, and clothing to Mrs. Joseph Auld, Burlington, Vermont.

Dated at Montpelier this 4th day of December, A. D. 1915.

Charles W. Gates, Governor.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

The Woman's Alliance will serve supper at the M. E. church at 6 o'clock Friday night. A social meeting of the ladies will be held in the vestry in the afternoon.

BARTON

Judge W. W. Miles' is in Woodstock.

Miss Mary Patrick was in Newport Saturday.

Mrs. S. M. Bickford was in Orleans Saturday.

Mrs. C. L. Erwin visited friends in Stanstead last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith visited friends in Orleans, Sunday.

Mrs. L. S. Erwin of Bradford is visiting her son, C. L. Erwin.

W. E. Hanson has hired Henry Smith of Orleans to work on his farm.

J. C. King has closed his house on Harrison avenue for the winter.

H. T. Seaver and Miss Clemma Seaver were in Troy over Sunday.

Lynn Taylor of Walcott visited his aunt, Mrs. Frank Sheldon, Sunday.

Mrs. M. L. Pearson of Orleans was the guest of Mrs. E. W. Barron Wednesday.

Clyde Sutor has gone to St. Johnsbury to work in the Fairbanks Scale works.

Miss Gladys McFarlane will assist in the E. W. Barron store through the holidays.

J. I. Parker of Burlington visited his sister, Mrs. C. A. Barrows, Friday and Saturday.

Miss Helen Squires was called to Newport Friday to attend the funeral of a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Clogston of St. Johnsbury visited at C. S. Clogston's over Sunday.

Mrs. Addie Williams of Northfield has come to spend the winter with Mrs. Mary Freeman.

Miss Susan Cunningham of Lyndonville was a guest of Miss Mary Wheeler over Sunday.

S. B. Nelson shipped a yearling ram from his flock of Shropshire sheep this week, price $20.

Mrs. John Urie, who has been visiting friends in Boston and Springfield, returned Sunday.

Mrs. M. J. Wright of Coventry spent several days last week with her aunt, Mrs. L. G. Frost.

Mrs. E. F. Dutton is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Abbie Chandler, in Orleans.

Miss May Spencer of St. Johnsbury was the guest of Mrs. F. D. Pierce several days last week.

C. A. Barrows & Son have improved their store by the addition of new show cases and counters.

Mrs. T. C. Coburn and son of Orleans visited Mrs. Coburn's father, F. D. Williamson, Thursday.

Miss Jessie I. Ross of Grand Isle, state department of elementary schools, is stopping at Hotel Barton.

E. C. Wheeler of Boston visited his niece, Miss Mary Wheeler and Mrs. Lucy Atanasiou, last week.

Mrs. C. A. Barrows and Mrs. W. W. Reiden attended the funeral of Mrs. Martin Abbott in Glover today.

Miss Florence LaMorey, whose illness was mentioned last week, died at her home in Westfield Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Bishop, was operated upon for appendicitis at Brightlook hospital, St. Johnsbury, Saturday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Ellen Webster Tuesday afternoon. Topic, "Heredit, its Burdens and Blessings."

James E. Ladd, who has been spending several weeks with his son in Bristol, Conn., has returned to Hotel Barton.

Miss Ruth Freeman returned to her school in Glover Monday and Miss Geneva Whitcher to her school in Willoughby.

Mrs. G. S. Donald of Springfield, Mass., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Jarvis, and friend, Miss Jessie Gorham.

Dr. W. R. Aldrich of St. Johnsbury was in town Thursday and removed a small tumor from W. E. Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chamberlain of North Hatley and Miss Cora Jones of Ayers Cliff were at A. A. Larabee's over Sunday.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Mary Arthur to George Alvane Ricker of Poland Springs, Me.

5567 Deer Killed.

The 1915 open season for deer closed at sundown Saturday evening and up to Tuesday evening Commissioner John W. Titcomb had received reports of 5567 deer killed. The returns will not be complete for several days. The largest number taken in any previous season was 4597 in 1909, a year when the taking of both bucks and does was lawful. The deer reported killed this season have been almost equally divided between does and bucks. Record by counties follows:

	Bucks	Does	Total
Addison	193	83	276
Bennington	180	182	362
Caledonia	115	110	225
Chittenden	75	83	158
Essex	108	108	216
Franklin	64	89	153
Grand Isle	2	0	2
Lamoille	233	298	531
Orange	103	111	214
Orleans	125	116	241
Rutland	267	324	591
Washington	355	490	845
Windham	388	395	783
Windsor	39	366	765
Totals	2707	2860	5567

Twelve of our ladies attended the community fair in Orleans Tuesday and received a most cordial welcome. The fair was a great success in every way.

A list of Spug members is to be published soon. All those wishing to have their names upon the list, hand ten cents to Mrs. C. A. Barrows at once.

St. John the Baptist mission services will be held third Sunday in Advent, Dec. 12 in the Odd Fellows' hall at 7:30 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Ruth Freeman and Miss Gladys McFarlane, who have been visiting friends in Springfield, Northampton and Huntington, Mass., returned Thursday night.

Several of the friends of Miss Glen Lang called upon her Monday evening, leaving a little token of their love. Miss Lang left yesterday for her new home in West Newon, Mass.

Mrs. Ellen Webster, who has been spending two weeks visiting her daughter, Miss Vera Webster, in Lebanon, N. H., and in the home of Mrs. F. W. Lewis, in Groton, returned Friday.

The young people's dancing class under the direction of Miss Madeline Randall of St. Johnsbury opened Monday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Every thing is favorable for a most successful class.

The following letters remain uncalled for at the postoffice. Please say advertised when calling for these letters. Mrs. Kate Ford, H. L. Bartlett, Alfred Benor, George R. Chabot, Bennett Douglass, James Gillespie, William Stevenson 2.

The sale at Lang's store is progressing finely and people are evidently appreciating the extremely low prices and many mail orders are being received. Mrs. Zora Wheeler, Mrs. Helen Batchelder and Mrs. Daisy Baldwin are assisting in the store.

Mrs. N. J. Eddy was pleasantly surprised Wednesday evening when several old friends called and reminded her that it was her birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent, refreshments were served and Mrs. Eddy was presented with a beautiful birthday book.

Willard, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Goodrow, while playing with other boys in the upper door of W. W. Reiden's barn, Saturday, fell a distance of about 15 feet. He was rendered unconscious by the fall and was badly bruised about the face, but fortunately, no bones were broken.

One of our most respected citizens, Mrs. Louisa A. Hagar, widow of Joseph F. Hagar, celebrated her 88th birthday Nov. 24. On Thanksgiving day the family entertained members of the family and friends from Glover at dinner. Mrs. Hagar was well remembered with post cards and gifts from all over the country.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 1, The Woman's Literary club held its meeting with Mrs. Hastings as hostess. Members responded to roll call by giving conundrums. A paper, "Magazines of Today," was written by Miss Butler and read by Mrs. Stannard. Music on the Victrola was furnished by the hostess. Paper, "The Influence of the Daily Paper," by Mrs. Cutler. Reading by Miss Renfrew. Miss Eveleth favored the club with a piano solo which was much appreciated. Twenty-five members and three visitors were present.

The Afternoon Study club met with Mrs. F. W. Baldwin Thursday afternoon, eighteen members and two visitors present. Club voted to hold a Christmas tree, each lady to give ten cents as a charity gift and not to exceed ten cents for the Christmas gift. Response to roll call, favorite modern authors. A paper was read by Mrs. Batchelder on "Popular Taste in Fiction," which was prepared and loaned to the club by Mrs. A. G. Fletcher of Orleans. Miss Seaver read a selection, "Togo and the Little Aristocrat," and Mrs. Ida Cutler read "Mirandy on Jomon on Junes."

Several selections were given on the Victrola and a sketch of the life of George Eliot, and comments on some of her best works read by Miss Wheeler. Mention was made in last week's issue of the death of Mrs. Amelia S. Mathewson, who formerly lived here. The funeral services were held at her home in Malden, Mass., Friday afternoon and the burial was in the family lot in this place in the Westboro O. Brown cemetery Saturday afternoon after a brief service at the M. E. church vestry, the Rev. I. A. Ranney officiating. The body was accom-

Congregational Church Notes

The Ladies' society will serve supper in the vestry tonight at 6 o'clock. Everyone cordially invited.

Mrs. R. P. Webster sang very acceptably. "The Peace of God," by Gounod for offertory Sunday morning.

Rev. W. A. Warner will exchange with Rev. L. A. Edwards of Newport Sunday morning and evening.

Those who are subscribers for the "Vermont Missionary" and who desire to subscribe for the coming year, price ten cents, will hand same to F. W. Baldwin.

A committee to make arrangements for Christmas exercises and tree has been appointed and plans are started. The committee is composed of F. S. Foster, W. S. Hibbard, Miss Mary Urie, Miss Lois Hawkins and Miss Eva Gilbin.

Rev. I. A. Ranney preached an excellent sermon Sunday evening at a union service on "Cushioned Religion."

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Mathewson's daughter, Miss Lillian B. Mathewson, and granddaughter, Miss Evelyn Waite of Malden, Mass., and by her grandson, N. A. Mathewson of New York City. The sympathy of friends here is extended to the bereaved members of the family. A further notice of Mrs. Mathewson's life will be given later. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Waite of St. Johnsbury and Miss Susan Cunningham of Lyndonville were in town Saturday to attend the burial service.

WILLDOUGHBY

E. C. Drown shot a doe Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Brooks recently spent the day at Frank Kimball's.

George L. Duke and family recently spent the week here with relatives.

Mildred and Florence Drown have been in Lyndon the past few days.

W. T. Brooks expects to complete his lumber job of chopping this week.

Mrs. Wilber Briggs of Wing Road, N. H., recently visited her uncle, W. T. and H. J. Brooks.

H. G. Brooks recently purchased a twelve horse-power steam engine for a small mill business here.

Mildred Drown and Virginia Brooks spent the week-end with their aunt, Mrs. Mary G. Kimball in Barton.

Mrs. Julia Drown has gone to South Royalton to help care for her brother's wife, Mrs. R. F. Winchester, who is ill.

Mrs. J. W. Russell has returned to the home of her daughter in Littleton, N. H., after spending the summer with her son here.

School began Monday with Miss Whitchee of Barton as teacher, after a two weeks' vacation. The exercises given by the school in the afternoon Friday before Thanksgiving showed something of the improvement which the pupils had made. All were glad to welcome Miss Whitchee again.

BROWNINGTON

The prayer meeting committee of the C. E. society were invited to meet with Mrs. E. S. Kelley on Monday evening. Those who came helped to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Kelley. It was a disappointment that all the members could not be present.

BROWNINGTON CENTER

Ira Gray got a fine deer in Westmore Thursday.

Miss Mae Emerson of Barton spent Sunday with her parents.

Lyman Seymour, who is working in Sheffield, was home Sunday.

Roy Emerson was a visitor at his uncle's in Westmore last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips of Irasburg spent Sunday at Thomas Smith's.

Mrs. J. H. McDonald has returned to take charge of the electric mill this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conley of Westmore were visitors at Charles Bennett's Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Wheeler of Sheffield spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Seymour.

Mrs. McGuire, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. G. Stone, has returned to her home in Albany.

Mrs. H. H. Day of Coventry and Mrs. O. A. Grow of Brownington visited at T. G. Randall's recently.

A good company gathered at the town hall Friday evening and listened to a very able address by Hon. M. M. Taplin of Orleans. The committee wish to thank all who kindly assisted them.

EVANSVILLE

There will be a poverty social at the home of Mrs. Gaylord on Tuesday evening, Dec. 14. Everybody is requested to bring a pound or a dozen. There will be a heavy fine imposed upon persons too nicely dressed or wearing jewelry.

CRAFTSBURY

Ed. Hardy, traveling agent, is spending a little time at his home here.

Mamie Hayden will assist in the store of Mrs. E. N. Nelson during the holiday trade.

Sunday, Dec. 12, will be observed as Mason Sunday at the M. E. church. Sermon by the Rev. C. D. Pierce.

Mrs. Amanda Davison and Clyde Anderson of Boston accompanied Mr. Harriman's remains from Newport and attended the burial services here.

The remains of David Harriman, a former resident of this town, who died in Newport Friday afternoon, were brought here Sunday and placed in the family lot.

The Burlington Free Press tells of the engagement announcement of Ray H. Allen, formerly of this place, to Marjorie May Whipple of Purchase, N. Y., where Mr. Allen has employment.

COVENTRY

John Wells killed a fox Monday that measured 54 inches long.

Mrs. William Stevens has been visiting relatives in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Freer returned to their home in Richmond Saturday.

Charles Hyland's little boy fell on the stove burning his face quite badly.

Eben Stevens had the misfortune to cut his foot quite badly while chopping recently.

Mrs. A. J. Hancock attended the funeral of Mrs. Charles Kidder in Irasburg Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Labell had a little one come to gladden their home Thanksgiving day.

Ruth Shippee came home sick from Orleans Friday and was not able to go back to school this week.

The village schools closed yesterday. It is expected that the new schoolhouse will be ready for the next term of school.

Mrs. Esther Hancock has gone to West Charleston to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Ernest Worboys. Dr. E. M. Cleasby took her in his auto.

Quite a large number attended the chicken pie supper in the Congregational vestry Friday evening. Rev. Chauncey Adams gave an interesting lecture on Ceylon. Receipts were about $26.

Eric Corrow and Miss Bernice Perry were married at the Congregational parsonage Tuesday evening of last week by Rev. C. C. Claris. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

(Intended for last week.)

Fred Harlow of Hartford, Conn., is in town.

A. B. Blake is moving into his house in the village.

Peter Gibney of Troy has moved to the Briggs farm.

Edgar Coolidge has gone to Barton to work for A. Dana.

The school closed the Wednesday before Thanksgiving with exercises.

Professor Sawin is at his home in Randolph during the vacation of two weeks.

Miss Elsie Parker is at home for the Thanksgiving vacation from her school at Newport.

Mrs. Clarence Rogers of Derby is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carter.

Miss Lillian Craig of Sutton and Marshall Benware of this place were married at the Catholic church Thanksgiving morning by Rev. Fr. LeBlanc. Congratulations.

The ladies of the Methodist church are holding a fair at the Woodman hall, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 8th and 9th. There will be a fine supper Thursday evening.

Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Knight in the loss of their little daughter, Lillie Eliza, who was born Tuesday Nov. 23, and died that night. Burial service Wednesday afternoon, and the Rev. E. T. Hurd officiating.

WESTMORE

Joe Labor's baby has pneumonia.

Merle Clapper is attending Barton academy.

Prayer meeting at the parsonage Thursday, Dec. 9.

Harley Converse visited his sisters, Mrs. Lula Tatro and Mrs. Bessie Rash last week.

Elvie Perkins's three children have had diphtheria but are a great deal better now.

We are glad to hear that Harold Rash, the ten-year-old son of Isaac Rash, has returned from the hospital and is doing nicely. We want to rectify a mistake made in the Monitor concerning the accident. Arthur Revoir was not at the schoolhouse as stated but was on his own land at the time of the shooting.

HOLLAND

(Intended for last week)

Annie Brewer has returned from her visit to Fitchburg, Mass.

Carrie Judd and Flossie Judd have been visiting in New York City.

Mrs. Hamilton is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Jenness.

Shirley Fae Hall, who is a teacher in the Newport graded school has been awarded a teacher's certificate in writing by the A. N. Palmer company, Boston, Mass.

The reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bradford Thursday night, Nov. 30, was well attended. They received many beautiful gifts and the best wishes of a host of friends.

Nina, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shompany died Monday morning, Nov. 29. She was sick only a few days with neuralgia of the spine. She was a bright, capable, pretty girl and liked by all who knew her. Her people have the sympathy of the community.

The community was saddened to hear of the death of one of its most respected citizens, Brigham Brewer. He was sick only a few days with pneumonia. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife and two daughters, two sisters and a brother besides a host of friends. Holland has lost a good man and his family have the sympathy of all the people. The funeral was held at his home Saturday morning where a full house of friends paid their last tribute to their departed friend.

LOWELL

Ben Fashby has moved to North Troy.

Silas Durivage visited in Morrisville recently.

Freeman Lathrop is suffering with blood poison in his hand.

Miss Clara Burgess has returned to Barton where she is teaching.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farman Monday day.

Miss Alice Foster of Newport Center visited friends here last week.

G. E. Curtis, H. Arthur Parker and Francis Jacques were in Cambridge Friday.